

Automobile Move Tips

Move Management, Inc. (MMI) is pleased to assist with your upcoming automobile move. Please review the following instructions to help ensure the success of your relocation.

Pre-Shipment

- Automobiles may be shipped prior to or after the moving of your household goods by an authorized car carrier.
- Inoperable, antique, collector, performance, or show automobiles are not allowed to be shipped. The auto must be in good operating condition. The auto must start, have steering and brakes. If you have a manual transmission, a working emergency brake is required. All doors and windows must work properly.
- Automobiles must have less than ¼ tank of fuel remaining before shipment.
- Please remove all personal belongings. No household goods or personal items can be shipped in automobiles. If these items are found the car carrier may be unable to move it.
- You must be present for the pick-up and inspection.
- Wash or rinse the exterior of your automobiles prior to pick-up to ensure an accurate inspection. The auto must be clean for an accurate origin physical inspection. Failure to provide a clean automobile decreases the ability to perform a proper inspection and may impede the claims process.
- Inspect your auto for imperfections (scratches, nicks, dings, etc.) in the presence of the driver, prior to releasing the automobile into the driver's possession.

Post-Shipment

- Inspect your automobile thoroughly upon delivery. ANY new damage MUST be noted on the destination Bill Of Lading at the time of receipt of your auto. Any damage reported after receipt that was not noted on the BOL, is subject to denial.
- The car carrier is not liable for wear and tear due to normal road conditions or inherent mechanical failures that occur during transit.
- You must file a claim within 48 hours of receiving your automobile, if one is needed. You will want to work directly with the car carrier to file a claim.
- Your benefits do not cover the cost of storing automobiles and will not provide insurance coverage during any self-storage period.

General Terms and Conditions

- An enclosed service for your automobile is available upon request at a cost to you. Please contact your MMI Move Counselor for more information and a cost quote.
- Notify your MMI Move Counselor as soon as possible if you are going to be late for the pick up or delivery appointment. If the car carrier waits more than 2 hours, you may be responsible for paying additional charges incurred for the waiting time.
- If you cancel your automobile shipment within 24 hours of the scheduled date, a cancellation fee may be incurred and you could be held liable for this additional cost. Please contact your Car Carrier Customer Service Coordinator or your MMI Move Counselor to cancel or change dates well before the 24 hour deadline.
- Maximum liability when transporting automobiles will be based on their actual cash value at the time of loss or damage.
- The car carrier cannot be held responsible for the following: Damage caused by Acts of God, including but not limited to hail, floods, hurricanes and tornadoes, consequential damages, interior inspection or condition, undercarriage damage, mechanical functions or diminished or loss of market value.
- It is recommended that you maintain comprehensive insurance coverage while transporting your automobile.
- If you have questions or concerns, contact your MMI Move Counselor.
